Emma Goldman: Revolution As A Way Of Life (Jewish Lives)

Synopsis

Anarchist par excellence, Emma Goldman is one of the memorable political figures, not because of her gift for theory or analysis or even strategy, but because some extraordinary force of life in her burned, without rest or respite, on behalf of human integrity. This text tells the story of this modern radical.

I don't know how else to put this: this is the silliest, most light-weight piece of nonsense I have read in a long time. Stuffed to the gills with hyperbole and conjecture, this "biography" reads like a terrible, trashy romance novel and is utterly unworthy of a woman of Emma Goldman's stature. I should have known that such a slim volume couldn't possibly do justice to the life of a great revolutionary.

Emma Goldman comes alive in this brilliant, vividly written book. Each sentence is razor sharp which makes the book a true page turner. It could not be more relevant given Occupy Wall Street or indeed The Tea Party. I loved this book.

This is an excellent account of Emma Goldman. I'm reading it in one of my grad classes and it's very enthralling. A story about a woman I had heard little about but am loving her courage and fire.

both the author and subject come across wonderfully. I highly recommend this book- a delicious and quick read that will leave you wanting more!

A very good brief biography giving a well thought out portrayal of Emma in the times in which she lived
